

Backyard Science

featuring
Biology with Berta!

Join us for some science fun featuring Biology with Berta. Each month we will explore a new theme through hands on activities and play.

Program is for children ages 5-12 only.
Limited spots are available.
Call 831-883-7507 to sign up today!

Berta Chatman loves teaching kids about the wildlife around their homes and believes college-level science concepts can be taught and learned at a young age through creative and fun activities.
