

Marina Branch Library Presents

A SPECIAL CLASSIC FILM MATINEE

Alfred Hitchcock and the Censors Book Talk and Film Screening

Join us for a special free event with author John Billheimer who will present movie clips illustrating his Edgar award winning book Hitchcock and the Censors.

This book explores how Hitchcock's films were targeted for censorship and how the master filmmaker worked around these issues.

After the book discussion we will screen Hitchcock's 1951 classic film Strangers on a Train.

Saturday, Nov 16
1 pm - 4:30 pm

Book talk will begin at 1pm followed by film screening at 2:15 pm. Q&A with the author will resume after film.
